

A I don't remember whether anybody spoke of it or not. I cannot remember that part of it; but what I meant, as soon as I broke the chamber, there is a little piece, I suppose about as big around as that, in the center of which is the firing pin, and on one side of it I could see the marks of the file and by that I could tell if - (to use a common word) had been tampered with and that was my remark meaning those marks.

BY MR. PFEIFFER:

Q Now, in the summer of 1922 were you down at Bay Head?

A I was.

Q And you were there while Mr. and Mrs. Hall were in Maine?

A Is that the year they were there?

Q Yes; they were in Maine.

A Yes, sir.

Q Now, did they come back to New Brunswick to your house before you did, or did you come after they did?

A Well, I tell you the day I came back.

Q What day was that?

A That was the day after Labor Day; that is the general clearing out of everybody.

Q Then you came back after Mr. and Mrs. Hall came back
